In the waiting of the confirmation of other celebrities

This Salon has always been keen on representing the cultural diversity of Monaco population. This 11th Edition of Monaco Book Fair will be the first to open a special area dedicated to foreign languages writers.

Taking into account the great public interest for comics, the association in charge of this Salon has decided to increase the number of comics artists, offering to the audience the chance to appreciate the diversity and the quality of this art.

During Spring 2012, the first book fair of Monaco was launched in the famous Exotic Garden with 30 local writers. It was opened in the presence of His Exc. Mr Michel Roger, Minister of State and His Exc Mr Jacques Boisson, Secretary of State representing His Serene Highness Prince Albert of Monaco.

Since then, H.S.H. The Prince Albert II de Monaco has always renewed his High Patronage, honoring the Fair by His Presence during the inauguration, when possible.

After this first success, the Salon has become an annual literary event and it has taken place in various locations: Auditorium Rainer III, Hôtel Méridien, Salle d'exposition Antoine 1er and for the last two years, it has taken place in the Riva Tunnel where it has welcomed an increasing number of prestigious authors like :
Luc Ferry, Frédéric Lenoir, Patrick Poivre d'Arvor,
Frantz Olivier Giesbert, Christophe Barbier,
Boris Cyrulnik, le regretté Gonzague Saint Bris,
Henri Joyeux, Jean-Pierre Fourcade,
Jean-Louis Debré, Irène Frain, Anne Roumanoff ,
Andrea Ferreol, Laurent Siksik, Isabelle Weill,
Jean-Marie Rouart, Antoine Leiris, Isabelle Paolini,
Frédéric Saldman, Fabien Lecoivre,
Anne Richard, Jean-Michel Cohen,
Patrick Moya, Franck Ferrand and many others.

The Salon receives around 1 000 visitors per day, according to authorized sanitary restrictions.

The Monaco International Book Fair has become an unmissable annual event, both for residents of the Principality of Monaco and for book lovers from all over the Côte d'Azur and Italian Liguria, happy to meet their favorite authors and to discover new ones selected by the Executive Board of the Association Rencontres Littéraires Fabian Boisson, in view to offer a large and attractive panel to them.
